SOLUTION

NARRATION

NOTE- Change the following sentences into Indirect Narration-   M.M. – 30

1. Suraj said to Neeraj, ''Let me have a cup of tea please because I am very tired.''
> Suraj requested Neeraj to let him have a cup of tea because he was very tired.

2. Mother said to me, ''Did you go to school?
> Mother asked me if I had gone to school.

3. He said, ''Let us wait for the train.''
> He suggested / proposed that they should wait for the train.

4. He said to Ravi, ''Happy Diwali!'
> He wished Ravi Happy Diwali.

5. The saint said to me, ''May you be happy!''
> The saint blessed me that I might be happy.

6. Manju said, ''How clever I am!''
> Manju exclaimed / surprised that she was very clever.

7. Ram said to his brother, ''Kindly help me.''
> Ram requested his brother to help him.

8. I said to my friend, ''You are very helpful to me.''
> I told my friend that he was very helpful to me.

9. The boy said to the Principal, ''Sir, May I come in?''
> The boy asked the principal respectfully if he might come in.

10. Good students said, ''Alas! This lockdown ruined our study.''

> Good students exclaimed with sorrow that this lockdown had ruined their study.

11. The servant said, ''I will come back after an hour.''

> The servant said that he would come back after an hour.

12. Some students said to me, ''Good morning, Sir.''

> Some students bade me good morning respectfully.

13. The servant said to his master, ''Thank you, Sir.''

> The servant thanked his master respectfully.

14. We say, ''May God save us from Corona!''

> We pray that God might save us from Corona.

15. All people say, ''Never tell a lie.''

> All people advise never to tell a lie.

Or

All people forbade to tell a lie.

……………………………………………………………………………………..

''SUCCESS COMES TO THOSE WHO REALLY WANT TO ACHIEVE IT.''